

ZEBRA Workcloud Inventory Visibility

Retail Returns Management

With many customers buying merchandise online, and with many purchases ending up returned, it's difficult to manage such an influx of returned products. Retail Returns Management streamlines how you handle retail returns by immediately capturing return data, speeding up the process of sorting returns and providing instant visibility into return status.

Transform Return Management with Zebra

Become a retail leader by simplifying returns processes for your employees and ensuring that all returns are managed in a streamlined and orderly manner.

Accurately capture data

Scan return orders to gather data in seconds, and cut time and inventory data errors by printing labels on the spot.

Speed up sorting

Utilize colored labels to quickly sort return orders and discern whether an order is resalable or damaged.

Gain real-time insights

Instantly know the status of returns orders to gather data on shrink, making it easier to take action and mitigate loss in the future.
