

PURCHASE ORDER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. SCOPE, ACCEPTANCE AND AGREEMENT. These purchase order terms and conditions ("Order"), including the purchase order itself, are hereby agreed to by and between Zebra Technologies Corporation and its Affiliates ("Zebra") and the other party and its Affiliates providing Products, Services, and/or Software under the Order ("Supplier"). These terms and conditions apply to Zebra's purchases of (a) tangible goods ("Products"); (b) professional services ("Services"); and (c) all software provided either as part of the Products or in connection with the Services or on a standalone basis ("Software"). The term "Products" will include Services and Software unless specifically otherwise indicated herein. This Order, and all of its terms and conditions, will be deemed accepted by Supplier upon the earlier of: (i) Supplier's commencement of performance; (ii) Supplier's shipment of any items specified in this Order; and (iii) any other indication of Supplier's agreement to this Order. This Order and all related transactions may involve and inure to the benefit of the entity issuing this Order, including without limitation, Zebra Technologies Corporation and its Affiliates. "Affiliates" means subsidiaries and divisions and any other entity that owns or controls more than 50% of the voting stock or other ownership interest in such corporation or entity. Affiliates are entitled to the rights, remedies and benefits of this Order. The term "Supplier" means Supplier and its Affiliates.

Through acceptance of the Order, Supplier represents and warrants that it is authorized to agree to these terms on behalf of itself and its Affiliates. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Zebra, the terms of this Order will be applicable to all quotations, agreements, purchase orders, and sales of Products to Zebra. This Order represents the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter addressed herein and, except to the extent inconsistent with a separate agreement signed by both parties that expressly applies to the subject matter of this Order, this Order supersedes all other oral or written agreements, arrangements, representations, and communications regarding its subject matter, including without limitation, quotations, proposals, and bids. The terms of this Order may be modified or amended only in a writing that is signed by both parties and that expressly refers to the terms of this Order and explicitly states the provisions to be so modified or amended. For purposes of clarity, no such amendment or modification will be effectuated by use of any Supplier sales terms, quotation, invoice, proposal, bid, acceptance or acknowledgment, or any Supplier shrink-wrap, click-through or packaging terms ("Additional Supplier Terms"). Furthermore, no Additional Supplier Terms in response to this Order will form any part of these terms and conditions nor govern this Order. Zebra hereby objects to and specifically rejects any Additional Supplier Terms which add to, vary from, or conflict with the terms and conditions of this Order. Zebra's objection to Additional Supplier Terms will not operate as a rejection of Supplier's offer under the Order, but, instead, will be deemed a proposed material alteration of these terms and conditions to which Zebra objects, and an acceptance by Supplier of these terms and conditions without, and not including, such proposed Additional Supplier Terms. If this Order is deemed to be an acceptance by Zebra of a prior offer by Supplier, Zebra's acceptance is hereby expressly conditioned on Supplier's assent to the terms and conditions of this Order.

2. PRICE. The price for the Products is as indicated on the face of this Order. All prices are in U.S. Dollars unless otherwise indicated. In no event will Zebra be responsible for any cost, expense or detailed line item that is for Supplier's overhead and internal administrative costs, including costs of support personnel or other costs of doing business.

3. INVOICING AND PAYMENT. Unless otherwise instructed by Zebra in writing, Supplier shall invoice Zebra upon the later of: (a) Zebra's receipt of Products at its facility; (b) completion of Supplier's performance of the Services; and (c) Zebra's acceptance of Software. Upon Zebra's request, Supplier agrees to submit electronic invoices in accordance with Zebra's electronic invoice and payment process, as notified to Supplier by Zebra from time to time. At Zebra's request, Supplier shall invoice and accept payment in other currencies at prevailing currency exchange rates. Supplier shall separately state on each invoice any import duties or sales, use, value added, excise or similar tax for which Zebra shall be responsible. Supplier shall not charge Zebra for any taxes from which Zebra is exempt and with regard to which Zebra furnishes Supplier a certificate of exemption. Unless a different period is indicated by Zebra on the face of this Order, payment by Zebra is due net ninety (90) calendar days from the date on which Zebra receives an undisputed invoice. If local law requires a shorter payment term, then the longest payment term permitted will apply. Supplier shall not assign, pledge, discount or otherwise encumber Zebra receivables without Zebra's prior written consent. In addition to all rights of setoff or recoupment provided by law, Zebra may, at any time and in its sole discretion, apply any amounts payable or other amounts due or owing from Supplier, whether arising under this Order or any other order between the parties, against Zebra's obligations to Supplier so as to reduce any amounts payable or other amounts due or owing from Zebra to supplier, whether arising under this Order, any other order, contract or obligation. Supplier may not exercise rights of setoff or recoupment.

Similarly, Supplier's Confidential Information is and at all times will remain the property of Supplier. The party receiving Confidential Information (the "Receiving Party") from the party disclosing Confidential Information (the "Disclosing Party") will not be obligated to maintain as confidential, Confidential Information that the Receiving Party can prove by documentation was: (a) known by the Receiving Party prior to such disclosure without an obligation of confidentiality; (b) lawfully obtained from a third party(ies) without a duty of confidentiality; (c) distributed to a third party(ies) by the Disclosing Party without restriction; (d) explicitly approved for release by written authorization of the Disclosing Party; (e) publicly available or becomes publicly available other than by unauthorized disclosure by the Receiving Party; (f) independently developed by the Receiving Party without the use of any of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information or breach of these terms and conditions. Supplier shall: (i) maintain the confidentiality of Confidential Information and not disclose it to any third party(ies), except as authorized in advance by Zebra in writing; (ii) restrict disclosure of, and access to, Confidential Information to its employees, contractors and agents who have a "need-to-know" basis in order for Supplier to perform its obligations under this Order, and who are bound by confidentiality obligations no less protective than those of these terms and conditions; (iii) handle Confidential Information with the same degree of care as Supplier uses for its own confidential information, but in no event less than reasonable care; (iv) use Confidential Information only for the purpose of performing and, to the extent necessary, fulfilling its obligations under this Order; and (v) promptly notify Zebra in writing upon discovery of any unauthorized use, access or disclosure of Zebra's Confidential Information, while also taking all necessary steps to regain possession and protection of the Confidential Information and prevent further unauthorized actions or breach of this Order. Except as otherwise provided in this Order, no use of any Confidential Information is permitted, and no grant under any Intellectual Property Rights of Zebra is given or intended, including any license thereto, implied or otherwise. Supplier shall not directly or indirectly export or re-export any Confidential Information to any country for which any applicable government, at the time of export or re-export, requires an export license or other governmental approval, without first obtaining such license or approval. Supplier's obligation to keep confidential the Confidential Information continues as long as the information remains within the definition of confidential information or for at least five (5) years following the later of fulfillment, expiration, or termination of this Order or Supplier's return or destruction of the Confidential Information and certification of such return or destruction.

All tools, equipment, drawings, software, data, samples, designs, prototypes or other materials or items, acquired for Supplier's use or furnished by Zebra to Supplier are and shall remain the sole property of Zebra and shall be used only for manufacturing, testing or supplying Products under this Order. Supplier will not transfer Personal Data across any country border unless such transfers comply with all laws and regulations including the supplementary contractual measures set out under Section 27 (Personal Data) and it is strictly unavoidable for performance under this Order.

7. REMEDIES. Unless specifically stated otherwise, all rights and remedies under this Order are cumulative Order and those available at law or in equity, if Supplier defaults on or breaches its obligations under any provision of this Order or delivers Products or Services that are late, defective, non-conforming, present a potential safety or environmental issue (in Zebra's opinion), or otherwise fail to comply with the representations and warranties in these terms and conditions, whether or not apparent upon inspection, Supplier shall immediately and at its sole expense: (a) at Zebra's option, immediately repair, replace or re-perform the affected and potentially affected Products and Services, or provide a refund for such Products and Services; (b) expedite late deliveries and performance; and (c) take immediate. In addition to all remedies provided elsewhere in this Order and at law or in equity, Zebra also may terminate this Order immediately, without liability to Supplier, upon written notice, if Supplier: (a) fails to comply with any provision of this Order; (b) delivers a Product or Service which is defective or which does not conform to this Order; or (c) becomes insolvent or unable to pay debts as they become due, except as may be prohibited by applicable bankruptcy laws. Supplier may not revoke its acceptance of, or otherwise refuse to fully perform, its obligations under this Order. Supplier may terminate this Order only based on Zebra's material breach of an obligation under this Order and only after providing Zebra with thirty (30) days advance written notice and a reasonable opportunity to cure the breach. Supplier must use its best endeavors to carry out and complete this Order in line with Zebra's provided requirements. Supplier will only be relieved of its obligations while it is unable to carry out or complete this Order because of any act of God, war, riot, fire or flood ("Force Majeure Events"). At the cessation of any Force Majeure Events, the Supplier shall resume its obligations unless Zebra has elected to treat the Order as terminated in accordance with this Section. If the Supplier is to invoke a Force Majeure Event, it must advise Zebra by notice in writing within fourteen (14) days of the start of such event. Upon receiving such notice Zebra shall have the right to cancel this Order without liability to the Supplier.

11. INDEMNIFICATION. Supplier shall fully defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Zebra and all of its past, present, and future Affiliates, customers, distributors, officers, directors, employees, contractors, successors, assigns, agents, (collectively "Zebra Indemnitee(s)") against any and all claims, damages, costs, expenses (including, without limitation, court costs and attorney fees), suits, losses, or liabilities of any type, under any theory of liability or recovery, (collectively "Claims") arising from or related to: (a) any death, injury, or property damage caused by acts or omissions of Supplier, or its past, present or future officers, directors, employees, contractors, subcontractors, representatives or agents (collectively "Indemnifying Parties"); (b) any acts or omissions of the Indemnifying Parties, including, without limitation, an Indemnifying Parties' performance of, or failure to fully, properly and timely perform, any obligation in this Order (including, e.g., delivery of Products that are, or are alleged to be, defective, non-conforming, or not in compliance with any warranties in this Order); (c) any possible, actual or asserted infringement or misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Rights arising from or related to any Product or to a Zebra product by virtue of incorporation of or use with Supplier's Product, Software, or Service, either alone or in combination; (d) Supplier's non-compliance with Sections 18-24 of this Order; and (e) any and all labor claims, actions or demands of any kind filed by or in regard to Supplier's personnel or contractors against any Zebra Indemnitee. Furthermore, if the purchase, manufacture, having made, use, importation, offer for sale, sale, or distribution of any Products or portion thereof, or any Zebra product or service by virtue of incorporation of a Product, is sought to be, is reasonably likely to be, or is in fact, enjoined or excluded from importation, then Supplier, at its sole expense and on terms acceptable to Zebra, shall: (i) procure the right for Zebra Indemnitees to continue purchasing, manufacturing, having made, using, importing, offering for sale, selling, and distributing such Product(s) and any Zebra products and services incorporating or used with them; or (ii) subject to Zebra's prior written approval, replace or modify such Product so it becomes non-infringing, are fully backward compatible, and meet all of Zebra's requirements, including, without limitation, ensuring that quality, quantity, price and delivery are equal or superior to that of the Product being replaced or modified. At Zebra's request, Supplier also shall assist Zebra in making alternative supply arrangements for such Products, related products or services, and any other potentially affected products or services. Supplier will not enter into any settlement order that affects any Zebra Indemnitee without Zebra's prior written consent. Zebra may, at its own expense, actively participate in any suit or proceeding related in any way to this Order through its own counsel, except that Supplier shall reimburse Zebra for such expenses if Zebra's participation through its own counsel is needed to avoid conflicting interests between the parties, to pursue any Zebra defenses, or to comply with a tribunal's rules or orders. Supplier agrees that time is of the essence and shall use best efforts and act in good faith to satisfy its obligations under this Section. If Supplier disputes its obligation or fails to fully and timely perform its obligations hereunder, each and all of the Zebra Indemnitees may assume the defense and/or settlement of the matter, provided, however, that Supplier shall remain fully and solely responsible for the Claim. Zebra has no obligation to indemnify Supplier under any circumstances. Supplier agrees that its obligations as set forth in this Section will survive the fulfillment, termination, cancellation, or expiration of this Order. responsible for all resulting Damages.

13. INSPECTION. Payment for Products does not constitute acceptance. Products will only be deemed accepted when counted, inspected, and tested by Zebra and found to be in conformance with the requirements of this Order. Supplier shall provide Zebra with a reasonable opportunity and amount of time to inspect Products. At Zebra's request, Supplier shall promptly issue a return material authorization to Zebra for Products: (a) that are non-conforming; (b) that are rejected, in excess of the amount ordered; or (c) delivered in advance of the delivery schedule. Supplier shall promptly evaluate the Products to identify the root cause of any defect or non-conformance, and provide Zebra with a detailed, written analysis thereof. Zebra's return or non-acceptance of Products will not affect Zebra's other rights and remedies under this Order or applicable law, including, without limitation, the right to reject or revoke acceptance of defective or non-conforming Products. Nothing contained in this Order relieves Supplier of its obligation to ensure that proper testing, inspection and quality control is performed. Zebra has the right to inspect Supplier's and Supplier's Supply Chain's facilities, equipment, materials, records, and the Products and may audit for compliance with this Order.

14. PACKING, DELIVERY AND SHIPMENT. All Products shall be packed and shipped in accordance with instructions or specifications contained in this Order or provided by Zebra. If Supplier intends to stop providing any Product to Zebra for any reason, Supplier shall give Zebra at least twelve (12) months prior written notice, during which time Zebra may continue to place orders for such Product, with delivery not to exceed twelve (12) months from the date of any such orders. At Zebra's request, Supplier shall assist Zebra in making alternative supply arrangements for the discontinued Product.

16. SERVICE AND SUPPORT. Supplier shall provide training and documentation as requested by Zebra. Supplier shall provide Zebra information about outstanding deliverables and any actual or potential issues related to Supplier's performance under this Order. Unless a longer period is specified in writing, Supplier shall make spare parts and repair services available for five (5) years after the last delivery under this Order.

17. INSURANCE. Without limiting Supplier's obligations hereunder, Supplier, at its own cost, shall procure, maintain, and keep in full force and effect insurance to protect Supplier and Zebra from all claims that arise out of or result from Supplier's provision of Products or Services under this Order. In particular, Supplier shall maintain the following insurance policies issued by companies in good standing: (a) Broad Form Commercial General Liability of at least $1 million; (b) Business Automobile Liability of at least $1 million; (c) Statutory Worker's Compensation; and (d) Professional Liability, as applicable, of at least $1 million. Supplier represents and warrants that in performing its obligations hereunder, the Supplier shall comply, without limitation, to all applicable environmental and recycling, health and safety, slavery and human trafficking laws, statutes, and regulations, including certain Zebra requirements for compliance with laws, which are incorporated in full by this reference and which are available at the Zebra Corporate Responsibility Resources link: <http://www.zebra.com/us/en/about-zebra/company-information/corporate-responsibility.html>, that are issued as of the date of delivery or performance, and the requirements set out in Sections 18 -24. Supplier further represents and warrants that in performing its obligations hereunder, Supplier shall adhere to the Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) principles fostered by the Responsible Business Alliance (RBA) Code of Conduct (<http://www.responsiblebusiness.org/standards/code-of-conduct/>) or any internationally recognized equivalent, in the areas of Environmental Sustainability, Health and Safety, and Labor and Ethics, and that Supplier shall promote implementation of these principles to its Supply Chain. Supplier shall provide written evidence, upon request by Zebra, sufficient to demonstrate to Zebra its compliance with this Section, including evidence and/or certification that no slave or indentured labor, no child labor and no human trafficking is used in its operations, as well as in the operations of its Supply Chain. Supplier will establish and maintain policies, procedures, and compliance programs sufficient in order to ensure its compliance with this Section and provide, at its own cost, copies of such compliance policies, procedures and program documents to Zebra upon request. Upon request by Zebra, Supplier will subscribe to the RBA on-line supply chain evaluation tool or provide evidence and/or certification of participation in an internationally recognized equivalent system. In either instance, upon request Supplier will share its CSR assessment report with Zebra. Zebra and its designated agents may conduct announced or unannounced inspections or audits to confirm compliance with this Section and Supplier will cooperate with Zebra in any such inspection or audit. If any such inspection or audit uncovers any lack of compliance by Supplier, Supplier shall be liable for and shall reimburse Zebra for all costs and expenses related to the inspection or audit. Supplier shall immediately correct any non-compliance and fully defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Zebra Indemnitees against any Damages caused by any non-compliance. If Supplier fails to comply in any respect with all of these requirements, failure to comply will be considered a material breach of this Order and Zebra may immediately, and without liability, terminate this Order.

19. ETHICAL CONDUCT, ANTICORRUPTION AND UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES. Zebra will not do business with any entity or person that Zebra believes makes or receives payoffs or is involved in any similar improper or unethical practices. Zebra expects its suppliers to abide by this policy with regard to their relationships with other entities and persons, and to not engage in any activity that results or may result in any conflict of interest for the Supplier or for Zebra or harm to Zebra's reputation. measures in respect of such Restricted Transfers to ensure compliance with Chapter 5 of the GDPR, the UK GDPR, and the equivalent provisions in applicable Information Protection Law: (i) If a Supplier is required by law or in response to a competent regulatory or government agency to disclose or surrender Personal Data transferred by Zebra, the Supplier shall (to the extent legally possible) not provide the Personal Data until instructed, in writing, to do so by Zebra and shall notify Zebra with enough (A) information; and (B) notice, to enable Zebra to challenge, at Zebra's sole discretion, the legal or competent regulatory or government agency requirement and will provide Zebra with all the cooperation and assistance as reasonably required; (ii) Zebra may impose further supplementary measures on the Supplier to ensure a level of protection essentially equivalent to that guaranteed by the GDPR, the UK GDPR, and other applicable Information Protection Law, including requiring the Supplier to implement additional appropriate technological or organizational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk; and (iii) Where the Supplier fails to comply with this Section, or where, despite this Section, a level of protection essentially equivalent to the "European Essential Guarantees" in the European Data Protection Board's Recommendations 02/2020 on the European Essential Guarantees for surveillance measures cannot be ensured, Zebra may be entitled to suspend or terminate transfers of Personal Data to the Supplier.

(c) Supplier agrees to process Personal Data in accordance with applicable data localization requirements as set out under the Information Protection Law, including: (i) taking steps to ensure Supplier handles the data in accordance with the applicable data localization requirements; and (ii) remediate any unauthorized processing by the Supplier or any permitted third-party data processor. Supplier shall assist Zebra in complying with applicable data localization requirements. Supplier shall be liable for and shall indemnify Zebra and hold Zebra harmless against any and all claims, actions, liabilities, losses, damages and expenses (including legal expenses) incurred by Zebra which arise directly or indirectly out of or in connection with Supplier's data processing activities under this Section.
